SEMINAR PARTNERS:

MARCIN SZALA

An experienced educator, co-founder and heads of an innovative high school in Poland - Liceum Artes Liberales.

NATURE OR NURTURE: CAN WE TEACH CRITICAL THINKING AND DOES IT MATTER

We will examine what goes into 'critical thinking' - skills, mindset and knowledge. We will look at some ways in which we can practise critical thinking and how it translates into civic education and what we risk if we don't developed it.

OLA CHODASZ

Applied DRAMA specialist (www.ola.chodasz.pl).

APPLIED DRAMA FOR LIFE SKILLS

The workshop will be an opportunity to experience using movement, emotions, voice and imagination in group work. We will mix short activities with discussions about using drama to develop life and social skills. The facilitator will share examples of her own projects for children, youth, elderly and multigenerational groups.

PIOTR DRABIK

Polish journalist based in Warsaw, currently working on the Political Desk at Fakt newspaper. Since 2023 collaborating with Lie Detectors.

FAKE OR FACT: A HANDS-ON APPROACH TO MEDIA LITERACY IN THE CLASSROOM

This workshop introduces teachers to universal approaches teaching critical thinking and digital media literacy, across age groups and subject areas. Teachers learn basics of online disinformation, fact-checking techniques and tools to resist online polarization.

MAŁGORZATA GARKOWSKA

Maths teacher in High School in Gloub-Dobrzyń. eTwinning Ambassador.

PAWEŁ CIESIELCZUK

English teacher at High School in Chełm. eTwinning Ambassador.

FROM CLICK TO CONNECT – EXPLORING THE ETWINNING PLATFORM

This hands-on session will guide participants through the European School Education Platform (ESEP). Participants will learn how to set up their profile, search for partners, explore projects and navigate the tools that support effective eTwinning collaboration.
